TO: Mayor & Council Members
FROM: Mike Anderson, Assistant to the City Manager
SUBJECT: City Manager's Report

Thank You Mark Bartelt!

Mark Bartelt, City of Waseca Park Director is retiring on January 31, 2017. Mark has been with the City for 39 years, starting his full time employment with the City in 1977 having worked seasonally for the City's park department from 1975-1977. Mark has been instrumental in the development, upkeep and scheduling of the City's 200+ acres of parklands including 15 parks and 11+ miles of trails. In Mark's time with the City he has been vital to the development of Northeast Park, the acquisition of the Northwest Nature Park and making sure 1,000's of people annually are able to experience and enjoy the City's park system. Please join us in thanking Mark for his decades of dedicated public service and wish him well as he enjoys his retirement.
